Farmingville, NY – On April 30, Supervisor Ed Romaine (second from right) and Councilman Michael Loguercio (right) attended the Ridge Fire Department's Annual Installation and Awards Dinner held at Atlantis Marine World in Riverhead. At the event, they thanked the outgoing officers for their service and presented awards to department members. Councilman Loguercio was also honored by the department with the William Kaspereit Memorial Award for his years of service as a volunteer firefighter and he was presented with a jacket for receiving one of the high point awards for the high number of emergency fire, rescue and EMS calls that he responded to last year. Also pictured is County Legislator Kate Browning (left) and members of the Ridge Fire Department.
