Farmingville, NY – – On June 15, Supervisor Ed Romaine was honored as Touro Law Center's Builders Society "Elected Official of the Year" during their annual "With Liberty and Justice" dinner held at the Garden City Hotel. The Builders Society was created to recognize and celebrate individuals who have been and continue to be an integral part of the Touro Law Center community. The Supervisor was joined at the dinner by Councilman Dan Panico and Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright, both Touro Law Center graduates.

Supervisor Romaine's son Keith graduated from Touro Law Center in 2003. He passed away in 2009 while serving as a Brookhaven Town Councilman, and in his memory, the Keith Romaine Elected Official Award was established and presented annually to a graduate who serves the public as an elected official.
