Farmingville, NY – On July 23, Supervisor Ed Romaine (right, holding ribbon) attended the Smiles for Hope Dental Ministries ribbon cutting ceremony at One More for Jesus Church in Farmingville. Smiles for Hope Dental Ministries is a not-for-profit organization that provides oral hygiene education and dental care at no cost. It is one of several ministries of One More for Jesus Church in Farmingville serving the needs of homeless men, women, elders, children and families for the past 10 years. Cutting the ribbon is Smiles for Hope President, Dr. Julio Carrion.
