Farmingville, NY – Recently, Supervisor Ed Romaine (center) welcomed the Shirai Group from Japan to the Town's Materials Recycling Facility (MRF). The group will be responsible for building infrastructure and managing waste at the 2020 Summer Olympics in Tokyo. They toured the MRF in order to gain insight on new technologies and innovations in the recycling industry. Pictured left to right with Supervisor Romaine are Shirai Group Chief Executive Officer Toru Shirai; Keio University Professor Eiji Hosoda; Harita Metals President Makoto Harita and Glass Recycling Committee of Japan Chairperson So Kato.

Supervisor Romaine said, "I was happy to welcome the Shirai Group to our recycling facility. Brookhaven Town is in the forefront of recycling and I am proud to know that we are recognized internationally for our efforts."
